

Joint Stallings/Indian Trail Stormwater Committee

“What are the Stormwater Concerns in My Town?”

Neighborhoods <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2 - Flooding in neighborhoods</li> <li>• Flooding in Forest Park Subdivision</li> </ul>	Funding <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Funding fees</li> <li>• Additional cost to developers</li> <li>• Control and cost</li> </ul>
Water Quality <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Runoff of pollutants as areas are developed</li> <li>• Pollutants carried into water table</li> <li>• Maintaining wetlands as pollution control</li> <li>• Destruction of wetlands by silt carried by stormwater</li> <li>• Water return for re-use</li> <li>• Quality in streams</li> <li>• Creeks clogged with debris</li> <li>• Protection of all species from bottom to top of food chain</li> <li>• Protection of Carolina Heelsplitter</li> <li>• Stream buffers</li> <li>• Conservation of existing watersheds</li> </ul>	Impacts of Development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Developments required to construct better holding ponds</li> <li>• Undersized pipes</li> <li>• Stormwater control in businesses</li> <li>• Accountability of developers</li> <li>• Floodwater over top of roads</li> <li>• Road flooding</li> <li>• Streets &amp; drainage</li> <li>• Runoff from property owners clearing land</li> <li>• Standing water</li> <li>• Increased runoff from development</li> <li>• Crooked Creek</li> </ul>
Floodplain Issues <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Runoff into floodplain</li> <li>• No close building to floodplain area</li> <li>• Reducing the floodplain concerns for the inevitable 100 year flood</li> <li>• Locating floodplain zones</li> <li>• Floodplain area kept natural</li> </ul>	Other concerns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Safety of Storm Sewers</li> <li>• Water Pressure (Public Works)</li> <li>• Effect on Engineers &amp; Planning</li> <li>• Drainage</li> </ul>