ARTS & CEREMONIES

DINNER THEATRE

February 20-21 • VFW Post 2423 • 3 Shows • $50 per ticket

Eccentric millionaire Albert Doornail summons his quirky inner circle to his estate—his ex-wife, fiancée, childhood friend, spoiled daughter, and nerdy nephew—only to be mysteriously absent. A grumpy butler, a sharp-witted cook, and the unsettling discovery of blood in the sink raise suspicions of foul play. When Inspector Bukowski arrives, the guests become suspects in a tense and twist-filled mystery surrounding Albert's disappearance.

Visit www.matthewsplayhouse.com for tickets and more information.

STUDENT ART SHOW

March 11-13 from 6pm-8pm March 14 from 9am-1pm • Town Hall

Indian Trail Town Hall will transform into an art gallery, featuring upwards of 500 pieces of art from local students. Make sure to check out your school's opening night or visit on Saturday during our open house hours.

*If you have homeschoolers, we would love for them to submit their artwork as well. Please reach out to recreation@indiantrail.org for details.

MARY POPPINS JR.

July 11 • Sun Valley High • 1pm and 5pm

Based on the beloved Disney film and hit Broadway musical, Mary Poppins Jr. brings the magical nanny to life in a practically perfect way. Set in 1910 England, Mary helps the troubled Banks family rediscover the importance of love and understanding through unforgettable adventures, teaching both children and adults that "anything can happen if you let it."

Visit www.lantiperformingarts.com for tickets and more information.

MAMMA MIA!

August 1 • Sun Valley High School • 1pm and 5pm

Set on a Greek island paradise, Mamma Mia! tells the hilarious and heartwarming story of a bride-to-be's search for her father, bringing three men from her mother's past back after 20 years. Fueled by ABBA's timeless hits, this unforgettable tale of love, laughter, and friendship delivers nonstop fun, big dance numbers, and a wedding you'll never forget.

Visit www.lantiperformingarts.com for tickets and more information.
